FIFTEEN CENTS

For 1972

TEN DOLLAR TAX INCREASE ALMOST CERTAIN

A few months ago Selectman George Boylen, who is a former chairman of the Wilmington Finance Committee, warned that a $10 tax increase for Wilmington in 1972 was a distinct possibility.

Meeting on Tuesday, the Board of Directors of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce came to the same conclusion. Their studies, still incomplete, show that taxes have increased in Wilmington over 110% in five years, and if the trend continues, taxes will be up another $10 in 1972. They found nothing to indicate that the trend will be reversed.

In the same five years in which taxes increased 110% the tax base (taxable property) increased only 33%, while the population increased 11.3%.

Some of the percentages shown:

The school population increased 12.4% while the cost of schools increased 112%.

General Government costs increased 52%, and Protection of Persons and Property (Police and Fire Departments) increased 96%.

Public Buildings costs increased 82%, and Health and Sanitation costs increased 78%. Public Library costs were up 253%, due to the new library, and Recreation costs were up 440%.

The cost of maturing bonds and interest is up 32%.

New Construction Down

During 1967, 68 and 69, during which the tax rate was nearly stable, the Chamber Directors noted, there had been construction of new buildings of over $8,000,000 a year, in each year.

In 1970 the total value of new construction dropped to $5 million.

In 1971, by current estimates, the total of new construction will be only $2.5 million.

The conclusion of the Board of Directors: The Town of Wilmington is spending money four times as fast as it is coming in. If there is only $2.5 millions in construction in 1971 there will be a $10 tax increase in 1972.

Lions Club Eye Clinic at Wildwood School Saturday

Vision Screening, for all First Graders will be held in the Wildwood School Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m. The test is for every child in school, first grader, at no cost to the parent.

The Wilmington Lions Club is providing the service, and there will be professional people present to do the actual eye testing.

But volunteers are urgently needed, and young ladies will be welcomed to help in the clerical work.

The Lions are providing a pancake luncheon at 12 noon. The cost is 50¢ per person, $2 per family.

The eye testing will resume at 1 p.m. and it is anticipated that it will finish about 3:30 p.m.

So far 465 First Graders have been registered and appointment times assigned. It is not too late, however, for First Graders to be registered.

If parents will call Joe App on the telephone (658-2223) he will gladly assign an appointment for a child, in the testing program. The child does not necessarily have to attend the schools of Wilmington - just be a First Grader, that's all.

The eye clinic is a very important one, to the children, and the Lions Club feel that every child in the first grade, in Wilmington should be tested next Saturday. There is no charge.

Wilmington's New Librarian

Philip W. Meriam, the new Librarian of Wilmington, received his Masters Degree in Library Service from Rutgers, in 1959. He is a resident of Lincoln, and will be moving to Woburn the first of November, that being the only nearest place to Wilmington he could get an apartment.

Meriam served four years in the United States Coast Guard, and then attended Alfred University, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree.

Prior to becoming Wilmington's Director of the Public Library he was the Director of the Public Library in Dedham, from 1968 to 1971. He served as Assistant Director in the Wellesley Free Library for six years, and was the Young Adult and Special Librarian, in New York City, for three years, after graduation from Rutgers.

His hobbies are gardening, sculpture and choral singing.

Mr. Meriam, and Mrs. Wavie Mrs. Drew has chosen that time to donate her painting of the Flying Cloud, by Atty. Joe Corish to the Memorial Library. The painting was given to her by her friends at a party last spring.

Recreation Department wants town owned Ice Rink

Dave Trickett of Suncrest Ave., a member of the Wilmington Recreation Commission told the Board of Selectmen that there is a dire shortage of Ice Time, for hockey practice and games at commercial rinks.

In recent years, Carl Backman Sr., told the Selectmen, Tuesday night, the local youngsters have been playing at the Billerica rink. With the advent of the new rink on Upton Court in North Wilmington it was assumed that there would be ample ice time available. The request for ice time on the Billerica rink was withdrawn, for the coming season.

North Wilmington's rink is so heavily booked, the Selectmen were told, that the number of hours of ice time available to the locals is short of the needs for the Wilmington Recreation Commission.

Mr. Trickett also noted the high cost of ice time at the local rink.

citing what is effectively a dollar-a-2-minute rate. The rink management subtracts several minutes from each hour for reconditioning the ice surface, even though the renter has paid for the whole hour.

The Recreation Commission is convinced that a town-owned rink would be a paying proposition, based on the success that nearby communities have had with their municipal rinks. Trickett presented a newspaper report which says that the rink which was constructed in conjunction with the Joyce School project in Woburn netted that city a $9,000 profit in one year.

Selectman George Boylen observed that if the town is going to consider making large capital expenditures for recreation, a comprehensive program, including other high cost items such as a municipal swimming pool, should be considered.

High Density Zoning on way Out?

HDZ, the High Density Zoning By-Law which Wilmington voted last year to control the parking situation around "quick-eat" restaurants, may be on the way out.

A few weeks ago the Town Counsel declared that it did not apply to the proposed Dunkin' Donuts, on Main Street, opposite Louie's. This brought a challenge from two members of the Planning Board, reported in the Town Crier as "trumping the Town Counsel's Ace?"

The ruling by the Town Counsel was because of a court case a few months ago, which this paper cannot quote, not having seen, and last week Danny Gillis of the Planning Board conceded that the Town Counsel had "picked up the cards".

Now the latest proposals for by-laws for Wilmington, in Section III of Professor Eliot's report (just out) contains, it seems, no references to HDZ. Professor Eliot is proposing a new type zoning "O" (for Official) zoning in Wilmington, for schools and parks, and other municipal property.

A few copies of the Section III are expected to be available to the public Saturday, at the CPAC meeting at Volkswagen.

100 Attend Bike Clinic

The Bicycle Clinic, held last Saturday morning at the Congregational Church, under the sponsorship of Senior Girl Scout Troop No. 112 was most successful.

Approximately 100 children attended the clinic, including members of Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 389.

Officer Ritchie spoke on bicycle safety precautions and bikes were checked for safety features prior to being taken through an obstacle course. Bicycle registration forms were also available.

The clinic was under the direction of Maureen Lounsbury, chairman who was assisted by Beth Bradford, Debbie Grant, Joy Wally, Paula Lombard, Debbie Morrisette, Cathy Morrisettes and Patty Vayo, all members of Troop No. 112.

Lloyd Crocker, treasurer of the Youth Ice Arena, Inc., declared last Sunday that the arena would be doubled in size, as soon as arrangements could be made. Mr. Crocker made the declaration during a dinner, at an out-of-town restaurant, celebrating the opening of Wilmington's new ice rink.

Mrs. Wavie Drew, retired Wilmington Selectwoman, and retired chairman of the Wilmington Republican Town Committee was a surprise visitor at the rink Sunday, for the ribbon cutting ceremony. She and Rep. Fred Cain performed the little ceremony.

There were over several hundred youngsters on the ice at the time. They had other things to do than watch people cut a ribbon.

It Is That Time Again!

It's time to get up in the attic, down in the cellar, or out in the barn to look up old clothes and other materials that can be turned into prize-winning costumes for the annual Horribles Parade, to be held on Saturday, October 30th at 6:30 p.m.

The parade was initiated two years ago and promises to become one of the town's biggest annual attractions.

As usual, the parade will begin in front of the Police Station, proceed along Church Street to the High School tennis courts, and into the parking lot at the rear of the courts.

At the conclusion of the parade, costumes will be judged, ribbons awarded, and refreshments served.

People of all ages are most welcome and all costumes will be judged - so come one, come all and join in the fun.

Contributions to help defray the cost of the parade, refreshments, etc., may be sent to: Horribles Parade, Box 49, Wilmington.

Wildcats in Four Way Tie

Coach Bellissimo's varsity eleven moved into a four way tie for third place in the conference with a decisive 21-6 win over Methuen last Saturday. The Wildcats now sport a 1-1 record in league play (2-1 overall), which is the same record of Billerica, Chelmsford and Andover. Things could become more hectic this weekend with five of the top six conference teams in action, including the Wildcats encounter at Dracut against the league leading (1-0) Middies.

A strong defensive game, the third straight in fact, led the way to varsity's second seasonal win as the Rangers did not penetrate beyond the Wildcat's 37 yard line until the closing seconds of the game. Paced by a strong front wall (Bruce McMillan, Alan Jansen, Mike Servein, Bob Scaramo and co-captain Mike Rounds) and some excellent linebacking by Leo Campbell, Paul Olson and co-captain Steve Holloway, Methuen's running attack was held to minus 60 yards in 25 rushing attempts. Meanwhile the Rangers passing attack was successful on only four of 13 tries for 105 yards (80 of which came on one passing play late in the game against the second defensive unit).

Offensively the boys continued to make mistakes, fumbling several times with Methuen recovering four miscues, once to stall a Wildcat drive at the Rangers seven. But they still put 21 points on the board and that's what counts??? Following an early punt return of 21 yards by Mark Jepson from the Wildcat's 34 to the Rangers 45 it took the defending MVC chaps only seven plays to score. On the initial play of the drive Arti Bibeau (140 yards in 22 carries) busted off tackle for twenty-one yards to the 24. Two plays later Jepson picked up four tough yards up the middle and when a Ranger was guilty of a personal foul the Wildcats had a first and goal from the nine. An offside penalty moved the ball to the four and on a 4th and inches try Jepson plunged over left tackle behind the blocking of Jansen for the score. The placement was successful, but a penalty nullified the try moving the boys back to the eight where Bob Conlin hit Jepson in the end zone for a two pointer and a 8-0 Wildcats lead at 4:40 of the opening stanza.

On the ensuing kickoff Paul Olson recovered a Ranger fumble at the Methuen 20, but the varsity could not turn it into a score as a third down pass Conlin to Dan Styles was picked off by Tom Benjamin (his first of a pair of interceptions) at the ten.

Each side turned the ball over to each seven times until the five minute mark of the second period when the Wildcats took over at their own 22 following a Jepson punt return of 17 yards. At this point the varsity marched to the Ranger's 27 in ten plays before another Benjamin interception on a Conlin to Bibeau aerial stalled the drive. A big play in the drive was a 33 yard pass and run play Colin to dean Devlin who took over t wing back when Dennis Sullivan ripped his hand open on the initial play of the game: which moved the ball from the Wildcat's 40 to the Ranger's 27.

Jepson electrified the crowd with an eighty yard kickoff return to get the second half off to a flying start for the Wildcats. Mark picked up the ball on the twenty and broke up the middle as the wedge formed and then at mid-field veered to the outside and down the sideline for his second td of the game. Jack Styles booted the extra point and the varsity was on top, 16-0.

Following the next kickoff,

Methuen crossed midfield and into Wildcat territory for the second time to the 48, but then were pushed back and had to punt out again. The Wildcats took over at their own fifteen and put together their longest sustained drive of the day marching to the Ranger 24 before turning the ball over. In the fifteen play march Bibeau lugged the ball eight times for 34 yards, while Jepson gained nine yards in three carries and Conlin hit on one of their series, a 17 yard bomb to Dan Styles.

An alert defensive unit was on target on the next play as the Ranger's quarterback attempted a pass from his own ten only to have Bibeau step in front of the intended receiver at the Wildcat's 40 and with a return of nine yards, the Wildcats were on offensive once again. A roll out by Conlin to the Methuen 41 and a two yard run by Jepson set the stage for the final Wildcat td of the game, a 39 yard scamper by Bibeau on a trap up the middle as Artie literally out ran his pursuers.

The point after kick was wide to the left and as the third period came to an end the varsity led, 21-0.

In the final stanza neither squad moved the ball with any consistency, except for a Wildcat drive midway into the period, set up a Joe Scifo interception, which carried from the Methuen 24 to the seene for a fumble hurt the drive. This was a big break for the Rangers as they turned the miscue into their lone score of the day. With twenty-nine seconds left to play the Rangers quarterback connecte on an eighty yard pass and run play thus breaking a thirteen game skunk in which the Wildcats had not allowed a touchdown by the air route.

The freshmen won their home opener (1-1) shutting out the Ranger Frosh, 12-0 last Friday afternoon. ob Bavota recovering an errant Ranger fumble in the end zone and Carl Butler (a 70 yard return of a punt) scored the young Wildcat td's.

Monday afternoon the jayvees romped to their third consecutive win slamming their counterparts from Methuen, 38-0. Bill Waller and Paul Fitch scored a pair of touchdowns to pace Coach Aylward's squad. The other scores came on Joe Lunetta's fumble recovery in the end zone for a td and Jack Holloway's safety.

Flag Football

The Boy's Division leading Giants won their fourth straight, 34-13 ver the winless Packers to highlite Tuesday evening's triple header at the Town Park.

In the other two games the Cowboys behind Mickey Grant's two td's moved into sole possession of second place with a 12-0 whitewashing of the Browns, while the Bombers exploded for three second half touchdowns to whip the Chargers, 24-13.

In the Giant's rout, Steve Woods led the way with 4 td's, while Vin McCoy (1 td), Mike Carlin (3 pat's) and Frank Downs (1 pat) aided the cause. Al Lanni (a td and 1 pat) and Bill Liston (a td) were the offensive stars for the cellar dwelling Packers. The Chargers overcame a 6-0 deficit to move in front 7-6 over the Bombers early in the second half in t evening's most exciting game onl to have the Bombers bounce back with a pair of td's later in the staza for an 18-6 lead. Threplays later the Chargers scored again to close the deficit to 18-13, but an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff failed and the Bombs salted the win away scoring on the final play of the game to provide the inal margin of victory. Dave MacMillan and Tom Stewart paced the winners with a pair of td's each, while Mke Micalizzi and Ed Marden scored one touchdown each for the upstart Chargers.

Next Tuesday at 6 p.m. the Chargers battle the Packers, followed by the Cowboys-Giants and Bombers-Browns encounters. In the final eries of games in the first half of the season. Barring rainouts the season will probably end on November 23rd.

In the Men's division, the Miceli Club continued on its winning ways posting victories over Sweetheart and Rocco's. Last Thursday night the Miceli boys belted the Plastic team, 55-13 behind te hurling of quarterback Len Gustus (5 td's) and the tackling f Gene and Jack Baldwin. (combining for 11 flags). Carl Roland and Irwin Patterson played well in alosing cause for Sweetheart. And on the holiday evening, the Miceli Club edged Rocco's 44-32 on the strength of Dick Ethier's passing. In other scores Charles River slammed Volkswagen 60-13 and Sweetheart won its initial game of the season as they belted the winless Volkswagen Club, 43-28.

Tonight Charles River battles Miceli at 6:30 and Sweetheart goes up against Rocco's at 8 o'clock. Nxt Monday's twin-bill includes the Volkswagen-Rocco's and Sweetheart-Charles River encounters.

Cross Country

The varsity harriers lost both their recent outings and are now 1-4 on the season.

Traveling to Billerica last Wednesday the boys were belted, 15-48 and the Middies of Dracut topped them on Friday, 16-40.

The lone bright spot for the varsity was Capt. Rick Keane who finished sth and fifth respectively in the losses.

Meanwhile, freshman Doug Spring took first in each of the two jayvee meets to lead the undefeated (4-0-1) junior set to wins over billerica (22-36) and over Dracut (18-40). Spring with winning times of 7:19 vs. Billerica and 9:10 in the rain against Dracut is now undefeated in each of the jayvee meets, winning all five.

The boys have two more conference meets including yesterday's encounter at Andover before the annual league meet on the 27th of this month on the Wilmington course.

Soccer

The varsity soccer eleven did not fare too well in its last two league mtches, bowing to Andover, 3-1 last Thursday and tieing Lynn English, 1-1 on Tuesday. Coach Lentine's booters are now 3-2-3 on the season with only six encounters left to play.

In last week's loss to the league leading Golden Warriors, the Wildcats suffered a third period defensive lapse allowing Andover to score a pair of goals within a span of 1:29 thus providing the margin of defeat.

The varsity dominated play throughout te first half with a 10-6 shots on net advantage and closed thehalf with a 1-0 lead. The lone Wildcat score came off the foot of left winger Bob Swishr (3rd of the season) at 6:57 o th second stanza. / The score was set up by co-captain Frank Simmons corner kick, which Ralph Decker headed to Swisher breaking in off left wing and the junior forward made no mistake beating the Andover netminder to the hort side.

But the second half was another ball game as the halfbacks played defensively instead of being offensively aggressive thus putting considerable pressure on the fullbacks aswell as the goalie.

Tuesday afternoon the boys traveled to Lynn with hopes of defeating the English squad for the second time, in the seasonal opener the Wildcats edged English, 3-2. The varsity dominated play in the opening frame putting five shots on goal, while allowing Lynn only a one on Tim Sqisher. The stats were reversed in the second stanza as a strong wind proved to be in favor of the squad with it blowing with their kick. Lynn tested Swisher with four good shots from in close and Tim was equal to the task each time and a half time it was scoreless.

Late in the third frame (13:30) Wayne Crosswell broke the deadlock with a 25 foot left footed boot, which beat the English goalie and things were looking up for the Wildcats. Simmons with a throw, l from midfield to co-captain Rick Lipski, who kicked a pass to Crosswell picked up the assists. With only 29 seconds left in the ame Lynn scored to tie the game and the Wildcats had to settle for one point in the stanings, ereas, they all but had two wrapped up.

Field Hockey

The varsity field hockey squad extended its unbeaten skein to three (2-1) with a pair of wins in their two recent outings. Coach Cassidy's girls shut-out Andover, 2-0 last Thursday and belted Dracut, 5-1 on Tuesday.

Goals by juniors Joani Bellissimo and Diane Rossi provided the margin of victory in the white-wash over Andover as the team played a strong defensive game. In the rout over Dracut, five different girls tallied goals to keep the streak alive. Linda McVicker, Diane Rossi, Sandy McNevi, Patti Pintrich and Carlene Butler led the varsity to its best scoring spurge in recent years.

The jayvees tied Andover, 1-1 on Diane Pintrich's late goal and shut-out the Dracut junior varsity 4-0 to keep it unbeaten (2-0-1) in tact. Doria McMillan with a pair of goals and Linda McNabb and Paul Cavanaugh with one score each paced the younger set to their second win of the young season.

Both squads will be in action this afternoon with Methuen providing the opposition with the varsity encounter listed for 3:15. Next Tuesday Billerica will be here for a 3:15 twin-bill.

It never Happens in Wilmington

Every year in the United States, thousands of High School and Academy students take National Merit examinations for scholarships in the colleges of these United States. Presumably students at Wilmington High are among these.

Afterwards there are news stories of pupils who have achieved high marks, and of pupils who have won scholarships, in the National Merit program. Wilmington is never mentioned.

The Reading Chronicle, the Winchester Star, the North Reading Transcript - all carry these kind of stories. It never happens in Wilmington.

Why? Are the students of Wilmington stupid? Or are they aimed in the wrong direction? Are there none who are real scholars?

Oh yes, a couple of boys from Wilmington have won scholarships in the last decade. One did it on his own. Another was a pupil at Austin Prep in Reading, which has an excellent scholarship standard. Perhaps there were more, but the Town Crier never heard of them.

There may be a dozen answers. One of them is to be found in the personnel of the School Committee of Wilmington.

The qualification for School Committee members in this town is a love for children. The candidate has spent so many years in this league, or that activity for children. He loves children, therefore he must be qualified and a good person to be elected to the school committee. And, he is elected.

Candidates who offer themselves as candidates with a background of serious educational value never get elected.

That's the way the people of Wilmington want their School Committee to be. That's what they get.

National Merit Scholarships never happen in Wilmington.

Beer and One Cop

Beer, as all the world knows, is a commodity which can be enjoyed, particularly if used in moderation. A very large part of the population of Wilmington uses beer, from time to time and sometimes, it may be said, to an excess.

A statement by Dr. James Stewart, of the Wilmington Public Schools, last week, in a way points this out. Dr. Stewart is of the opinion, as is this publication, that alcohol is the problem in Wilmington, more than is the use of drugs - not that there are not a few youngsters who have essayed a whiff of marijuana from time to time.

The past summer saw the parking lots of Wilmington in a disgraceful condition, from beer drinking parties. The High School lot included, each morning would find hundreds of bottles, empty, many of them deliberately smashed so as to increase the burdens on the adults who were trying to keep the places clean. It was a disgrace.

One arrest and conviction in Woburn Court of selling liquor to minors cleared up the parking lot problem. Puff - the beerdrinkers disappeared!

It is now quite apparent that those people, assembled by the dozens and sometimes by the hundreds, were minors - people under twenty-one years of age, who got their beer from complaisant adults, people who purchased the beer in liquor stores and then sold to the minors. Some who did this, it seems, were not trying to make money - just being nice fellows - but the $200 fine taught a lesson. No more favors for those under 21.

Perhaps, as is argued, lowering the age at which people are allowed in bars to 18 should be done - to prevent this kind of bootlegging and disgraceful actions on the part of the youth of Wilmington. Maybe the age could be lowered to 16, on the same argument.

Several things seem to be facts. Minor children - minor in relation to the liquor laws - were involved, both boys and girls, and their parents either did not know where they were, or did not care.

Those Wilmington people who have had their windows broken, during the past summer by cavorting youths may now have the pleasure of knowing that perhaps those windows were broken by beer drinking youths under the age of 21.

Action by a Wilmington policeman stopped it all. What would have happened if there had been action earlier?

NICK FITZGERALD HAS PROBLEMS: Nick Fitzgerald, of the Fitzgerald Oil Company has assembled thirty or forty acres in Andover, just on the other side of the Wilmington line, and wants to have the property "land courted". In order to do this the Wilmington Planning Board must first sign the plan, because one small piece, seventy-five feet wide, comes into Wilmington, on Ballardvale Street.

There was a long conference Tuesday night, as the Planning Board cannot sign unless the zone frontage is present. On Ballardvale Street the frontage is 200 feet (Rural Zone). Fitzgerald had to leave the meeting without the signatures.

Muddy Finger

The Wilmington Town Manager Act is, it might be said, the Constitution of Wilmington. It is an act of the Legislature and lays down the ground rules for the municipal government of this town.

One feature is a provision whereby the appointment, hiring and firing of town employees is put solely into the hands of the Town Manager. The idea is to keep the political aspects of job giving at a minimum, in Wilmington.

One of Wilmington's politicians blithely goes ahead, as if the Town Manager Act doesn't exist. He promises this employee, he tells that employee. He isn't the Town Manager, but he acts if he were the Town Manager.

The Town Manager is to make an appointment, within the next few weeks, to the Fire Department, but Wilmington's politician has already promised the job - Town Manager Act or no. He is stirring up resentment, on the part of some people, with his little muddy finger.

There is really a laugh. If he waited, there would be another appointment to make shortly. There was no need for haste, both candidates could get a job, and Muddy Finger wouldn't be making a few more enemies for himself.

The Board expressed neither approval or disapproval of the idea of having a municipal rink, but suggested that the Recreation Commission continue gathering facts and figures in preparation for an article in some future Town Meeting.

CPAC Report

Mrs. Madelyn McKie, former chairman of the Planning Board reported that the Citizens Planning Advisory Committee has arranged a seminar on the subject of Master Planning next Saturday at the Volkswagen Plant from 10 am to 3:30 pm.

Speakers will include Professor Charles Elliot, consultant in planning to the Town of Wilmington; a representative of the Mass DPW: Messrs James Miller and John Henry of the Metropolitan Area Planning Council, who will speak on solid waste disposal; John Caswell of SILC (Sub-regional Intertown Liason Committee); and Oscar Donati of the US Army Corps of Engineers.

Errors in U.S. Engineer Flood Survey?

The U.S. Engineer Survey of the flood waters of North Reading and Wilmington is now being distributed in limited quantities in both towns. There seems to be at least one major error on the part of the engineers.

The Flood Plain Information map given to the Wilmington Planning Board shows a large area around

That Law Suit

The Wilmington Planning Board has taken the Board of Appeals to court, alleging that a variance for a theatre was not given in accordance with the law.

It is too bad that these things have to happen. The Town Counsel, by direction, is preparing the case for the Planning Board. The Board of Appeals will have no counsel, unless it goes out and raises money, from some source.

There was a similar case in Reading, about a dozen years ago. In that instance the Town Counsel was defending the Board of Appeals, and the Planning Board had to go out and raise some money, which it did. The case involved a small store near the organ pipe factory on Lowell Street, to which the Board of Appeals had granted a variance. The Planning Board won - the variance was disallowed by the court.

The provisions of the law allow, if the town fathers wish to, the spending of money for the attorney for the side not defended by Town Counsel. A few years ago Danny Gillis tried to get this law changed from "may" to "shall". He did not succeed.

The belief of the members of the Board of Selectmen is that if the people of the proposed theatre think enough of the site, they will provide the money for counsel for the Board of Appeals - on the whole a fair assumption.

As things stand now there doesn't seem to be any one on the Board of Appeals who wants to change his mind. Maybe, if they find some money, there will be a court case.

Church Street, of about 125 acres as "subject to Intermediate Regional Flood". The area is colored blue on the Planning Board Map.

About 75 homes are in the region, and while it is possible there may be some wet cellars, the area is noted as being dry, and in the best part of town. Some of the streets are Columbia Street, Beacon Street, Clark Street and Temple Street.

The area below Wilmington Square, where flood waters customarily flow along the railroad track and across Main Street is shown in which, i.e. not subject to flood.

The Signing of Satch

It is upstairs in the Garden Club. A cluster of newspapermen, television lights, camera men - and Phil Esposito. He has signed a four-year contract with the Bruins.

Now, come downstairs, sort of, to the Celtics office on the balcony of the North Station. No newspapermen, no television lights, no camera men - just Tom 'Satch' Sanders. He has signed a one-year contract with the Celtics.

That's the way it is when one man, Esposito, is coming off a record 76-goal season, and the other, Sanders, is coming off an injury-riddled season.

In his own modest way, Sanders' value to the Celtics is nearly as important as Esposito's is to the Bruins.

This is how the Sanders signing went: He walks into Red Auerbach's office. "First," said Auerbach, "he hands me a $1 cigar and says, 'this is bribery'. Then he holds up a sign, 'No, not enough'. That's funny, huh?"

By the time Red finishes laughing, Sanders turns the card around. On the other side, it says: "Okay, I'll take it."

And, voila, he was signed. "All he wants to do is play ball," said Auerbach, "no nonsense. All pro athletes should have his attitude."

Sanders' worth is a very basic thing: experience.

He is the player who could have put the Celtics in the playoffs last year. Remember all those games they lost in the last four minutes - games they could have won? Sanders was the man who might have made the difference.

Satch is 32 years old - and it's hard to believe he came to the Celtics for the 1960-61 season, a spidery type player from N.Y.U. He was nurtured wisely by Auerbach and became an un-publicized, under-rated player.

His attitude never changed. He was a workman.

"The attitude and experience of a Tom Sanders... that's what we missed last season," said Auerbach.

The 10 points per game he has averaged for his 10 years in the league isn't all that critical. His value isn't there. It's rebounding, playing defense - playing the sound game.

Sometimes in the glory days he took rebounds at such key points the number 16 on his back looked like 6 - Bill Russell's number.

It will be nice to have him around again for he is a player who can stabilize a team when the late-game pressure comes along.

He is a good Celtic.

Fire Losses Up 20%

2,475,000 fires of all kinds produced a loss of 2.8 billion dollars in 1970 according to the International Fire Safety Organization. Little improvement is seen for 1971.

As inflation continues to drive the replacement cost of your home or business up, up and up, it's just good business to review your policy at periodic intervals. We can be helpful.

Did you know that the overstuffed chair came into vogue in the 17th century? If you have ever visited a castle it will be clear to you why this furniture style was so desirable. The warmth and comfort was good protection against the dampness and drafts of the poorly heated rooms. Even central heating has not diminished the popularity of this style, perhaps because of its inherent beauty and comfort.

Today, with the emphasis on casual living, it is no surprise that a new furniture style has evolved which can best be described as "thoroughly casual." You can look to this style to provide as much comfort as the Falls are a great disaster to more than 400,000 workers every year. As many happen on the level as from elevated places.

Falls may be the result of stumbling, slipping, or loss of balance. Usually they are caused by plain carelessness...objects left in the middle of the aisle or on stairs, spilled oil, grease, or water, waxed floors, or icy exterior walks.

Rushing up or down stairs can throw an individual off balance. Stairs should be walked up and down slowly with feet firmly planted on each step and the handrail used.

We should take care when filling prescriptions to bring them to a reliable pharmacy such as Silver Lake Pharmacy, 52 Main St., Tel. 658-4617. Whitman and Candy Cupboard Candies. Cards. Open 9-10 Every day.

Class Rejects Prom
On September 29th, the class of 1973 met to discuss the junior prom and other issues.

The following day an official vote was taken. The junior class voted 135 to 38 against having a prom this year. Most of the students were not disappointed in the decision.

Steve Coursey, class president, feels: "I'm glad. I'd rather have an activity in which the entire class will participate, instead of only a few students, which has been the case at the last few junior proms."

As alternatives, the class may go to a beach, on a boat ride, or perhaps both.

Newly Appointed
Several teachers have been appointed as advisors to extra-curricular activities.

Malcom Jones will be the freshman class advisor and Margaret Sullivan has accepted the position as advisor to the cheerleaders. Pamela Glading will head the art club and Karen Hellmer will advise the school newspaper.

Students Elected

At the meeting of the newspaper staff on September 30th, Michelle Lombard was elected editor; Ronald Colbert, assistant editor; and Suzanne Doucette publisher.

on to the next grade will be based on: 1) the parental attendance at the Area Captain's meetings held in her district; 2) the parental and child's attendance at the special classes held in the church approximately every six weeks; and 3) the participation by the child in the activity work connected with each lesson.

Since it was decided by the Executive Board last spring to do away with the report card system, the students will now be evaluated and graded on: 1) attendance regularly at the weekly class session; 2) the participation and good conduct before/during and after class and 3) the responsible fulfillment of home assignment requirements.

This applies to grade levels 3 to 6. Parents of grade 7 are reminded that the opening session was Monday, October 4th. As many as 10 children were missing from some classes. This session counts for the attendance record which will affect the student's rating.

Tests: The books will be distributed at the class session. Please pay the teacher the regular fee of $4.00 per child; $6.00 for two children in the program; and $8.00 for three or more children. Should the student lose his book, he will be expected to purchase another.

Arthur Hamilton's lunch cart stopped in the square, and each morning he carried large cans of water in a wheelbarrow from his home on Church Street for the day's supply.

Johnny Stokes and his father driving cattle up Burlington Ave. to their home on Aldrich Rd.

Charlie Osborn driving the rural free delivery mail wagon.

Sunday morning, horse-drawn barges carrying prospective buyers to land sales on Taft, Roosevelt and Swain Roads.

Car loads of dressing from Boston Livestock Stables on railroad siding at Shawshen Ave., from where it was taken by the Alexander Brothers to their farm on Hopkins St.

Waiting for the afternoon mail to be sorted by Postmaster Milton

Mr. Hart and Mr. Haskell, crossing tenders at the Main St. railroad crossing.

Sometime during 1918 or 19, a new club was organized in town. The boundary lines for membership went from George Richardson's on Chestnut St. to the brook beyond what was then the Fred Page house and the Hillside area.

Mrs. Rodgers was the oldest lady in the neighborhood and her sister came to live with her. As they found it very lonely, some friends joined together and formed the club. The group met for lunch and each member brought her mending, knitting etc to work on.

It was called the Darners' Club and members included: Miss Quinn, Bella Richardson, Mrs. Rodgers and sister, Mrs. West, Helen Marion, Bessie Page, Alice Lundgren, Mrs. Robinson, Ella Sprague, Mildred Ross, Mrs. Mottitt, Jennie Hall, Eleanor Jessup, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Keddy.

What do you do with a table whose top is so damaged that a simple sanding won't do the trick? Often, it is just as economical to cover the entire surface with a new piece of wood.

Prestwood, which has been tempered, and plywood are two excellent types of wood to use for this purpose.

Remove the old finish, and sand down the old surface until it is smooth, and relatively free of irregularities. Cut edges of the covering piece, flush with old surface and glue down with wood-working glue.

What do you do when you need tools and other materials? Take a trip to Sweeney Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., 658-2061 of course, where you'll find hand tools, Rockwell Power Tools and a complete line of hardware.

We have all kinds of woodworking machines to handle any of your milling problems. Hours: Daily 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Fridays 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Complete line of Pittsburgh Paints and all kinds of sundries including brushes, rollers, thinners and turpentine.

Helpful Hint: Cover this patching with a piece of banding around the edge, a wide enough piece to cover both surfaces.

INSURANCE INSIGHTS

EDUCATION FUND

Could you pay for a college education for your children from your current earnings?

If you can't, life insurance can help you provide for your children's education.

It takes about $1,500 per year for a child to attend a state-supported institution. A private college or university will cost close to $2,000 a year. A four year college education can cost up to $10,000. That's over twice what it cost in 1940. In a few years, it will probably be even higher.

One of the basic financial needs a family faces is their children's education. Many large numbers of families save for education through life insurance.

Individual circumstances dictate the type of policy to buy. Your insurance agent is your best advisor on the right policy for you.

Happiness is knowing you are fully protected by insurance! For your total insurance service see The Bender Agency. Your protection is our business at The Bender Agency, 380 Main Street, open Monday/Friday 9:00 to 5:00, Thursday evenings till 9:00 and Saturday 9:00 to 12:00 for your convenience. Simchas Torah Services at Temple Shalom

The Torah is the scroll to be found in Jewish Houses of Worship, containing the words of wisdom which are read to the congregation. It dates back thousands of years, and every year the Torah is opened again at the beginning, for another year of reading.

There is a religious ceremony at that time which is quite unlike anything seen in a Christian church. The ceremony is called Simchas Torah, and - means "Feast of Rejoicing".

There is a procession within the Temple, during which the men bring the Torah to all parts of the Temple, with song and dancing. Jewish spectators, of course, take part, and non-Jewish spectators find themselves strongly impelled to do so. The children of the Temple pick up flags and follow the men, singing and dancing as they go. It is quite a ceremony. And it is followed by refreshments, in another part of the Temple, served by the ladies.

LEONARD LEVIN: Of Waltham, was the Lay Reader, acting as Cantor. He hopes to become a Wilmington resident soon.

AN EDUCATION UNIT IN THE SHAWSHOEN IGE PROGRAM: In front are Chris Kuchler, Timmy Sanville, Valerie Herson and Raymond McCabe. In back are Michael Tilton, Billy Janczyk, Heather Thompson, Linda Kaufman and Jimmy Vachon. The Unit Leader standing in back, is Mrs. Linda Reuther.

Over 200 parents, a week ago, had an introduction to I.G.E. (Individually Guided Education), at programs conducted in the Shawshoene Avenue School and in the Woburn Street School. I.G.E. is currently being introduced into the math instruction in the Shawshoene School.

The Shawshoene School is co-operating with the Merrimack Education Center, in Chelmsford, to increase the effectiveness of the learning program. I.G.E. is a way to teach children, one at a time together.

It is a system for improving instruction for elementary children with variations in order to handle an individual's ability, learning style and rate of learning. Its aim is to individualize learning for each and every child.

An important part of the system is an on-going in-service program for the teachers, to increase their skills and abilities in planning and developing such an individualized program.

Miss Jo-Anne Myers, principal of the Shawshoene School reports that the program is exciting, and the teachers are enthused. There are no difficulties, she says, in implementing the program in the Shawshoene School. The Home Communications part of the program is vital, she says, and is appealing to parents of the children to participate in a volunteer program in a number of areas.

The areas which Miss Myers listed are Clerical Aide; People interested in speaking to classes or groups on special topics; Library Aides; Paraprofessionals and teacher aids in the IGE units; Volunteers for after school activities; and Baby sitting services for volunteer mothers.

The Home-School communications program, Miss Myers says, carries the concept of Parent Teacher Association one step further, in that the parents will actually become involved in the education of their children.

The Shawshoene School has five units involved in the program. The units are according to age groupings, for which there are teams of five or six teachers, including a unit leader, who has total responsibility.

It is a non-graded system. Individual students are assessed on their strengths and weaknesses. Learning activities are developed in relation to objectives for the specific pupils.

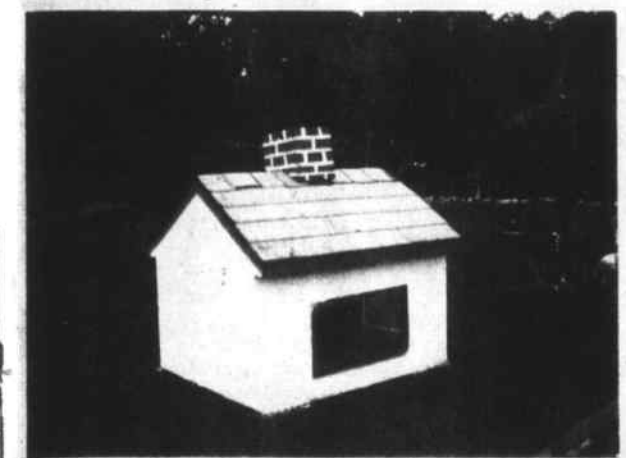

At the Woburn Street School the IGE instruction is in reading.

RICKIE'S DOG HOUSE SIGN

Rickie's Dog House sign, a familiar feature on Main Street, will have to be cut in size, Danny Gillis of the Planning Board said, on Tuesday night, if a Dunkin' Donuts establishment is built beside it.

The size of the sign was determined by the frontage of the lot, along Main Street. If other buildings are built on the same lot the size will have to be smaller.

Gillis said that the present sign will become illegal the moment the Building Inspector grants a permit for another building.

HAROLD MCKELVEY'S DOG: Will have a nice winter. Harold, who lives on Border Avenue, has a chimney on the dog house. The chimney, of course, is for Santa, and for good measure there is a window for the dog to use, while he watches Santa approach.

The Blackfriars of Austin Prep

The Blackfriars of Austin Prep will present 3 one-act plays on Friday and Saturday evenings, October 22nd and 23rd at 8.

The first play of the evening will be "The Trial of John T. Scopes", based on the actual transcript of the historical Scopes "Monkey" Trial. Mark MacDougall of Woburn is the clerk. Robert Duffy of Reading is Clarence Darrow and Martin Stafford of Reading is William Jennings Bryan.

The second offering will be "The World's Greatest Athlete", an original play by Robert Duffy, Jr., of Reading. Included in the cast are Peter Duffy of Reading, Robert Thornton of Reading and Casey McNamara of Wilmington.

The final play is "The Second Study in Scarlet", an original Sherlock Holmes mystery by A.S. Nieuwenhuis. Robert Thornton is Sherlock Holmes and August Nieuwenhuis of Winchester is Dr. Watson, his assistant. They are supported by Stephen Banester of Reading, Justin Wilson of Wakefield, Steven Poole of Reading, James Miller and Gerard Wilson of Wakefield and Casey McNamara and Donna Everett of Wilmington. General admission to the production will be 25.
